

Hunterdon Helpline Annual Dinner

Hunterdon Helpline's Annual Chef's Spotlight Dinner is planned for Monday, March 28, 2011 from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Riverside Room of the Inn at Lambertville Station, 11 Bridge Street. The fee for the limited seating event is $65.00 per person. For details or tickets, call Helpline at 1-800-272-4630.

The evening will begin with hors d'oeuvres and cash bar reception and silent auction with the live musical entertainment. The hors d'oeuvres items to be served buffet style include crudités and cheeses. The salad course will be a Mixed Green Salad. The entrée course offers a choice of one of two dishes, chicken or fish, accompanied by vegetables and rice pilaf. Select wines will be served throughout the meal and are included in your pricing. Dinner will be followed by a special dessert of Angel Food Cake and a selection of coffee and tea.

Located on the banks of the Delaware River in historic Lambertville, NJ the boutique Inn and landmark Station Restaurant celebrate the region's natural beauty. Lambertville Station Restaurant offers a taste of history alongside classic American cuisine and the Riverside Ballroom sets an elegant events scene.

Michele Cicchino, the Banquet Chef for the Lambertville Inn, a lifelong resident of Lambertville, has been serving as Chef for weddings and the Sunday Champagne Buffet

Brunch for over two years. Chef Cicchino started as a food runner moving on to serve for four and a half years as the Souse Chef at Lambertville Station. Michele's culinary education began at home with her large Italian family. She loves to be creative with her menus and presentation and is very much a perfectionist about her food and how it goes out of the kitchen to the table. She enjoys cooking for weddings at the Inn because "she can help make their special day more special by giving them great food". Outside the kitchen Chef Cicchino enjoys painting and drawing which gives her that extra special attention to detail in her table displays as well as the plating of her cuisine.

The silent auction portion of the evening will include a theater tickets, dinner certificates, jewelry, attraction certificates, golf outings, floral pieces, decorator pieces, gardening accessories, gift baskets and much more. This will be a great opportunity to get your gifts for Easter, Moms, Dads and grads while having a wonderful evening to the benefit of Helpline.

The event is in support of Helpline which serves Hunterdon County as the first call for help and support for non-emergency help. Helpline has been serving the community since 1969 and in addition to information and referral the agency arranges for emergency shelter, administers the Friendly Visitor Program, makes Telephone Reassurance Calls, offers compassionate listening, administers Literacy Volunteers of Hunterdon County, suicide prevention, provides intake services for utility assistance, administers the Translation Center of Hunterdon County, provides registration for tax assistance filing, communication after hours with LINK and do so 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year all without a fee. Helpline is funded by the Hunterdon County Board of Chosen Freeholders, United Way of Hunterdon County, Hunterdon County Division of Disabilities, Senior and Veteran Services, Large Foundation, and donations from Service Clubs, Churches, and Municipalities, individual and fundraising by the Helpline Board of Trustees.
